

2010-2011 VOICI – Voices of Canton Scholarship Awards

Winners of six vocal music scholarships given by Voices of Canton Inc., the Women's Committee of Voices of Canton and private individuals for the 2010-2011 school year were announced by judges Ben Ayling, Laurie Lashwood, and Rachel Shaffer.

Kathleen Bachtel received a $1,000 college scholarship for a graduating high school student. She is studying for a degree in Music Education. Kathleen will be a freshman at Westminster College this fall. She is the daughter of Michael and Jennifer Bachtel of Massillon.

Abigail Krawson received a $1,000 college scholarship for a student studying for a degree in vocal music at the undergraduate or graduate level. She graduated from Bowling Green State University and is pursuing a Master of Music in Performance at New England Conservatory. She is the daughter of Stanley and Sandra Krawson of Canton.

Brittany Cary received the $500 Walter Ed McGrew scholarship. She is attending the Boston Conservatory of Music and pursuing a Bachelor of Music in Voice Performance with opera emphasis. She is the daughter of Joel and Lisa Cary of Canton.

The Stephan Dannemiller college scholarship of $500 to an undergraduate student participating in vocal music was awarded to Megan Moody, daughter of Thomas and Linda Moody. Megan will attend Belmont University in Nashville, TN and work toward a degree in commercial music.

Kyle James, a junior at Washington High School and son of Paul and Shari James, received a $400 scholarship for private vocal lessons to a high school student.

Michael Allen received a $500 scholarship for private vocal lessons to an adult who has not pursued a degree in vocal music. He is also a singing member of VOICI -Voices of Canton.

The awards were held Sunday, June 13, 2010 in Cable Recital Hall in the Cultural Center for the Arts.